The non-appearance of a condition report does not mean that (a) the lot is in perfect condition, (b) does not show wear due to age and use, or (c) is free from damage. House of Craven strongly suggests that you request a condition report before placing a bid. You may request one from us via this auction platform or email. Please note that any condition reports are given strictly as a courtesy to interested parties and should not be considered a statement of fact. House of Craven bears no responsibility for any error or omission.

All sales are final and sold "As Is, Where Is". Measurements are approximated.
